

Reflex — System Architecture

Delivery coordination platform for small Kenyan retailers | Node.js/Express backend, direct DB access

Each client role calls the backend API for its own action (logging a request, assigning a rider, or updating/scanning a delivery). The backend reads and writes PostgreSQL directly, with no intermediate queue or sync layer.